Dear parishioners of St. Anthony Church,

I am happy to have this opportunity to express to you my congratulations for the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of your parish. As I write this letter my mind goes back to the beautiful celebrations in which, on different occasions, I have had the privilege to participate in the last 40 years.

Your parish has played a very important part in the realization of the mission entrusted by the Church to the Congregation of the Missionaries of St. Charles. For many years, thousands of Italian immigrants, their children and grandchildren have found in your parish a church that made them feel at home, helped them to preserve the values of their Christian faith and of the Italian culture and at the same time become fully integrated into the American society. In recent years St. Anthony parish, by welcoming the new communities of immigrants coming mostly from Latin America has given yet another proof that it is a community where no one is a stranger, a truly Catholic community open to all God's children.

"While races mingle, spread, and fuse; above the roar of our machines, above all this feverish activity, over and beyond all these gigantic achievements and not without them, a much vaster, nobler, and more sublime work is developing: the union in God through Jesus Christ of all people of good will." I am sure that in your parish, in some way, you have already seen a realization of these prophetic words which Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini pronounced in New York over one hundred years ago. My prayer for you is that the celebration of the 75th Anniversary will renew your determination to pursue the full realization of this vision.

God bless you.

MISSIONARIES OF SAINT CHARLES • SCALABRINIANS

May 1, 2003

Rev. Camillo Lando, CS
The Parishioners of Saint Anthony Church
38 Oakes Street
Everett, MA 02149-2512

Dear friends:

As you celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the founding of your parish community, the Missionaries of Saint Charles – Scalabrinians and I would like to congratulate you and pray that God may continue to bless you and your families.

Among the many positive characteristics of the parish that stand out is a loving and caring community that welcomes everybody. For the past 75 years your parish community became a sacred place where many found solace and nourishment for their faith. Your vibrant and welcoming community makes the presence of the Lord felt even more for those who need hope.

You along with the Scalabrinian Missionaries were able to make the presence of the loving God felt by strengthening the Christian values of hospitality and acceptance that still hallmarks in your hearts. I pray that those same values may continue to lead your life today and in the future, thus enabling you to keep your hearts and arms open to welcome and accept all immigrants who come to you. It is comforting for all to know that Jesus Christ will say to you: "Come and possess the Kingdom which has been prepared for you ever since the creation of the world... because, I was a stranger and you received me in your homes (Mt. 25:35)".

Faithfully yours,

(Rev.) Sergio Dall'Agnese, c.s.

The History of St. Anthony's Church

Compiled by Charles Radosta

At the turn of the twentieth century, a small group of Italian immigrants left the North End of Boston and moved to the less congested city of Everett. Scattered here and there while their numbers increased, they grouped together and found common interests under the banner of a St. Anthony's Society headquartered somewhere on Ferry Street.

Following World War I, a mass exodus from the tenements of the North End swelled the early settlers. The open country of the suburb appealed to their desire for a more suitable home.

During those early years, many of these immigrants did not attend local churches because of the language barrier. Others would travel to the North End to attend either the Sacred Heart Church or St. Leonard's Church.

The increasing Italian population of Everett, under the leadership of Orazio Rocco, Antonio Dragone, and Celestino Pierotti, appealed to William Cardinal O'Connell to establish an Italian parish in Everett. The request was granted and a sum of money was donated by members of the Italian community and deposited in a Boston bank.

The decree establishing the new parish was signed in 1927. The parish was assigned to the Pious Society of St. Charles Borromeo, a missionary order devoted to the spiritual and temporal welfare of immigrants. This order is also known as the Scalabrinians, after the founder of the order, Bishop John Baptist Scalabrini. Reverend Lino Buggini, C.S. of the Sacred Heart Church in the North End, was assigned to care for the Italians of this parish and provide them with a church.

In the beginning, Father Buggini commuted between Boston and Everett. Without a church or rectory, he would meet with the leaders of the parish in various homes. A search began for an apartment for Father Buggini and a site for a church.

During the later part of 1927, the old Broadway Theatre was rented. The theatre was located near the corner of Broadway and Corey Street. Under the supervision of Celestino Pierotti, Accurzio Indelicato, and others, the hall was repaired, the seats were refurbished, and the altar installed on the old stage. On Palm Sunday, April 1, 1928, the first Mass was offered in St. Anthony's Church of Everett.

Membership in the new church began to increase. The social and religious life of the parish was reflected in the many organizations of the new church. St. Anthony's Band was organized. The Knights of St. Anthony was formed. Baseball and basketball teams became known throughout New England. In addition to the Sunday school teachers, the choir and the altar boys, other groups such as the Holy Name Society, the Tabernacle Society, the Catholic Women, and the Christian Mothers, were established.

In 1932, although the community was suffering financially because of the Depression, the Archdiocese approved a request to remodel the church. At a cost of $6,000, the old theatre became an attractive house of worship. This structure served the parishioners until 1950, when the new church was constructed on Oakes Street.

During the same year, the first permanent rectory was established with the purchase of the property at 38 Oakes Street, the house of a former Protestant minister. The garage was remodeled to serve as a meeting hall and parish center.

Father John Peona succeeded Father Buggini in 1933. In addition to founding the Catholic Women's Club, he began the New Church Fund. The fund was created to build a larger church to meet the increasing demands of the parish. Upon his death on February 19, 1944, the parishioners through various activities and donations had contributed approximately $125,000 toward the building of a new church.

In 1944, Father Natale Oddenino was appointed Pastor. During his pastorate, members of the parish who served in the war were returning to civilian life. He assisted with their many needs and problems of readjustment. Under his guidance, the New Church Fund expanded. On October 4, 1946, Father Oddenino died suddenly.

After his death, Father Corrado Martellozzo became Pastor. Under his leadership, the parish experienced tremendous spiritual and physical growth. Church organizations were reorganized and membership grew. Fundraisers for the new church were held and church activities increased. On February 7, 1946, a large parcel of real estate was acquired on Oakes Street, next to the rectory. Construction for the new church began on March 14, 1950. It was completed the following year when the new church was officially dedicated on September 9, 1951. A few years later in 1953, the parish celebrated another great event. The twenty fifth anniversary of the church was celebrated at the Everett Armory. Shortly afterwards, Father Corrado left the parish to assume the position of Provincial Superior of the Missionary Fathers of St. Charles Borromeo in the eastern United States and Canada.

In October 1953, Father Peter Bortolazzo was called to succeed Father Corrado. Father Peter inspired and encouraged many of the societies of the church. The Catholic Women's Club, Holy Name Society, Christian Mothers, Tabernacle Society, and the Children of Mary helped to raise substantial funds through many of their social activities. St. Anthony's teams on all levels became leading contenders in the C.Y.O. Deanery championships. The drill team brought home many trophies. A special needs class was introduced in the Sunday school. The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts were important in the moral development of the children of the parish. Under the leadership of Father Peter, plans for a new parochial school were developed. Pledges were solicited and in a short time $450,000 was raised to pay for the new school. Construction was started on May 13, 1957 and St. Anthony's Parochial School was opened in September 1958.

The Sisters of St. Francis of Allegany were invited to staff the parish school in 1958. The first principal was Sister Marie Concepta (1958-1962). She was followed by Sister Margaret Anthony (1962-1968), Sister Helen Roberts (1968-1974), Sister Catherine Campbell (1974-1983), Sister Margaret Shea (1983-1991), and Sister Dorothy Burns (1991-1996).

In September 1996, the first layperson, Mrs. Cynthia Boyle, became the principal of the parochial school. In addition to the principals, outstanding faculties of dedicated religious and lay teachers have served at St. Anthony's Parochial School.

Shortly after the completion of the school, a new rectory was built. It was dedicated in 1962.

Father Peter was transferred to another parish in 1964. On October 10, 1964, Father William Pizzoglio, a former curate at St. Anthony's, returned as the new Pastor. Under his leadership, funds were collected, and a new convent was built. During his tenure as Pastor, the fortieth anniversary of the parish was celebrated.

Also in the year 1964, the parish received the wonderful news that another one of her priests was honored. Father Joseph Spigolon became the new Provincial Superior of the Scalabrinian Fathers in the eastern United States and Canada.

The sixties saw changes taking place as a result of Vatican II. English replaced the Latin language. The priest celebrated Holy Mass facing the people. The altar was moved closer to the congregation. The people began to take an active part in the Liturgy with prayer and song.

Father Joseph Scopa, the new Pastor arrived in September 1968. Father Joseph stressed the fact that lay members of the parish should assume a greater responsibility in accordance with the decrees of Vatican II. The rectory became the center of countless meetings. Laypersons were appointed Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Commentators. Adult education courses were conducted. Family dinners and coffee served after Mass helped foster a new togetherness.

In 1973, parishioner Thomas Marchant became a member of the first permanent diaconate class. He was ordained at the Holy Cross Cathedral on May 22, 1976. On the following day, Sunday May 23, the congregation attended Mass with Deacon Tom on the altar. A reception was held in his honor in the church hall that was filled to overflowing. Deacon Tom has served the parish faithfully, teaching children and adults, assisting with the sacraments and preaching the Gospel.

On Sunday morning February 5, 1978, the parishioners welcomed Father Michael Tarro, as their new Pastor. In March, at the request of Bishop Mulcahy, Father Michael was canonically installed. Later in the year the fiftieth anniversary of the church was celebrated with a parish reunion and dinner dance. During his pastorate a ramp was constructed in the front of the church for the use of the disabled. Dinner dances and fundraisers enhanced the social life of the parish.

In 1983 Father Michael was re-assigned and Father Hilary Zanon became the new Pastor. One of the memorable events during his tenure was a joint celebration by the parish. The fortieth anniversary of his ordination and the one hundredth anniversary of the Scalabrinian Missionary Order. Many Scalabrinian priests including the Provincial Superior, Father Silvano Tomasi, now Archbishop, attended the celebration. Several carnivals sponsored by the parish were held in the playground adjacent to the school to raise funds for the school and church.

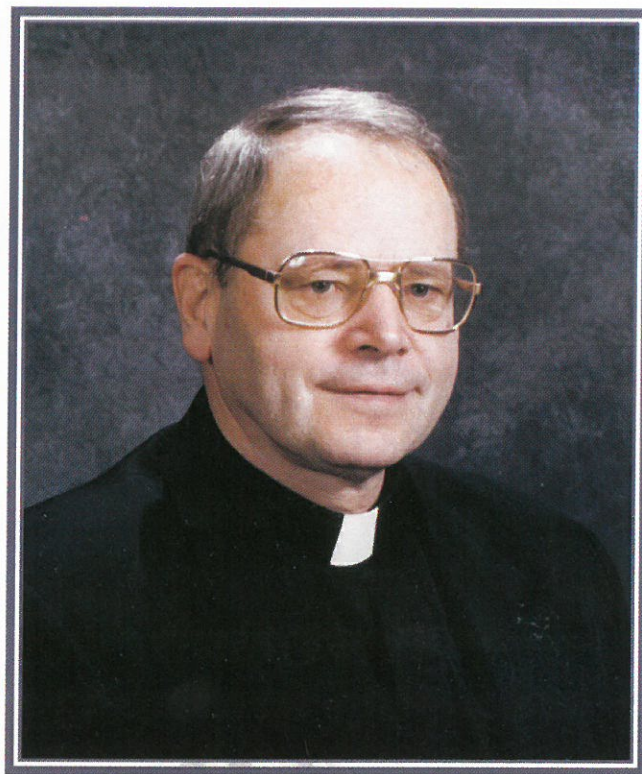

After six years as Pastor, Father Hilary was transferred to Canada. Father Joseph Spigolon, who served the parish in the fifties, and who served as the Provincial Superior returned to the parish and became the new Pastor. During his time as Pastor, Father Spigolon stressed lay participation in the liturgical celebrations. He was also an accomplished musician and would often play the organ during church services.

Father Santo Cigolini arrived in 1992 and served as Pastor for four years before he was transferred.

The current Pastor, Father Camillo Lando, arrived in 1996. Father Lando saw a need for a new group of migrants in our community. He obtained permission from the Scalabrinian Order and the Archdiocese in order to minister to the Hispanic and Brazilian communities. Today the liturgy in St. Anthony's Church is celebrated in English, Italian, Spanish and Portuguese. Many cultures now call St. Anthony's parish their home. In 1997 a side chapel in the church was renovated and dedicated to Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini. The chapel is open daily for adoration and prayer.

Several members of the parish are currently serving in ministry. Father Carlo Birarelli and Father Mario Moscaritolo. One of the first to enter a religious vocation from our parish was Calogera (Lena) Indelicato. In 1935, she entered the Sisters of St. Francis of Syracuse. Sister is now 90 years of age and is in residence at the motherhouse.

The history of St. Anthony's Church is a record of many dedicated parishioners, and the devoted ministry of many priests. Their work in the vineyard of our Lord is a testament to the spiritual life of the parish. It is constantly nourished by their fervent dedication to God and our Lord, Jesus Christ. Many parishioners too numerous to mention, past and present, are the rock upon which this church has prevailed.

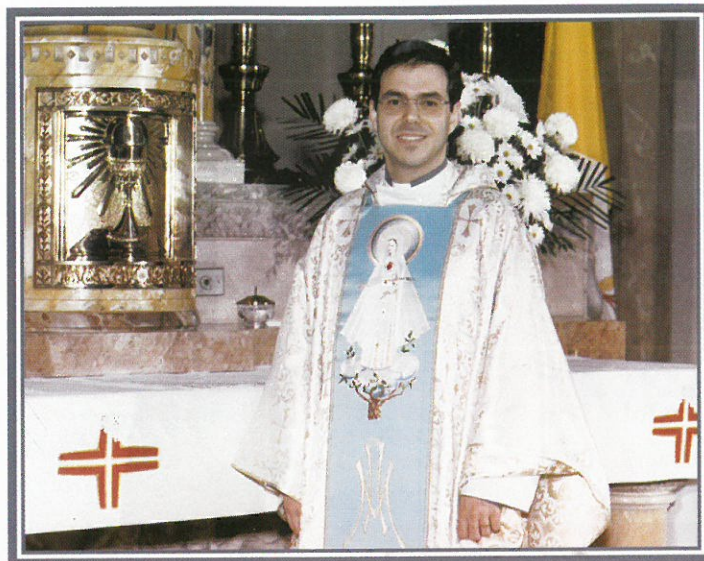

Father Camillo Lando, C.S.

Father Camillo Lando, C.S. was ordained on September 3, 1966. The son of Luigi and Valentina Lando, he was born in Rossano Veneto (Vicenza) Italy in 1941. He began his studies for the priesthood at the age of 12 when he entered the seminary at Bassano Del Grappa, in the province of Vicenza. After his ordination he was assigned to London, England for further studies in preparation for his ministry in North America. Following a brief assignment at Our Lady of All Souls Church in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada he was transferred to St. Bartholemew's Church in Providence, Rhode Island. In 1972 he returned to Italy for further studies. After completing his studies in Rome he was sent to Caracas, Venezuela for a brief period. He was then assigned to Our Lady of All Souls Church in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, where he served for six years. His next assignment was a multi-cultural parish in Mississauga, Ontario, Canada. His tenure at St. Catherine Siena Church began in 1979. Four years later he was appointed Pastor. In 1992 he was transferred and appointed Pastor of Our Lady of Pompei in Montreal, Canada.

After serving four years he was assigned to St. Anthony's Church. Since his arrival the parish has become multi-cultural and services are offered in four languages. He has also re-vitalized the Italian community. Many now come from surrounding communities to attend services. A statue of Father Pio, a much beloved priest in Italy, has been placed near the church entrance. Many in the Italian community personally knew Father Pio, who was canonized in 2002.

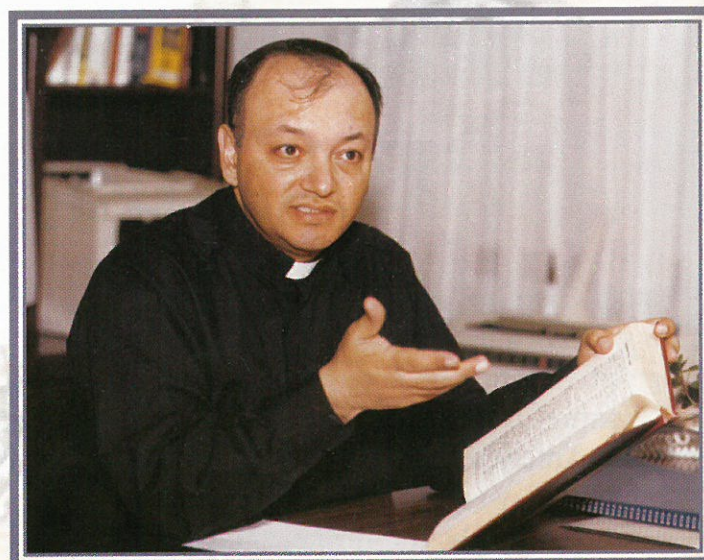

Father Antonio Carvalho, Associate

Father Antonio was born in Brazil in 1967. He was ordained in 1993 in Tivoli (Rome) Italy. He was assigned as a Parochial Vicar at St. Lorenzo's Church in Tivoli. He was also the Director of the seminary in Tivoli for foreign students studying for the priesthood. He holds a Masters Degree in Systematic Theology from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome. In the year 2000 he applied for the opportunity to serve the Brazilian community in the Eastern United States Province of the Scalabrinian Order. He was assigned to St. Anthony's parish in October 2000.

Father Luis Duque, Associate

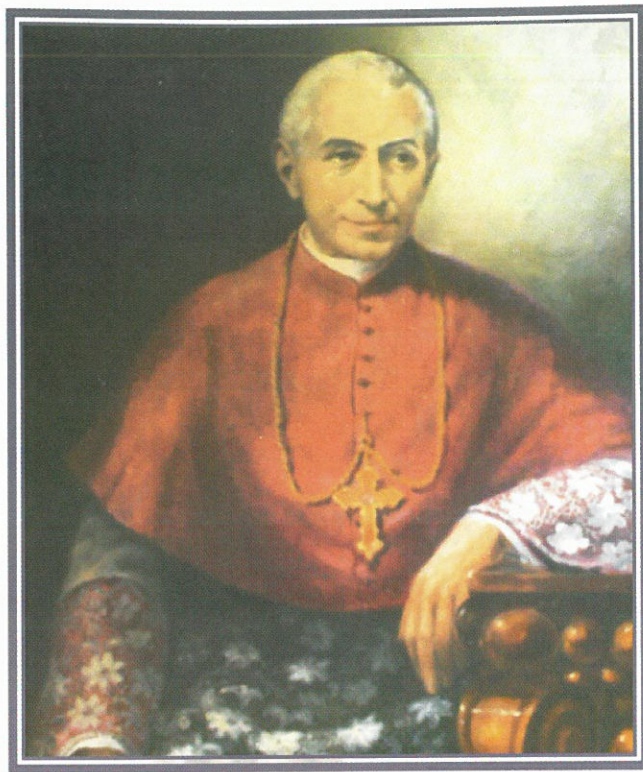

Father Luis was born in Venezuela in 1962. He was ordained in San Cristobal, Venezuela in 1986. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Theology, a Bachelors Degree in Education, a Doctorate in Theology and a Master in Counseling Psychology. He is currently pursuing additional studies in School psychology and family therapy. He has served in several parishes in Massachusetts and has been serving in St. Anthony's parish and with the Hispanic community since 1998.

Reverend Mr. Thomas Marchant, Deacon

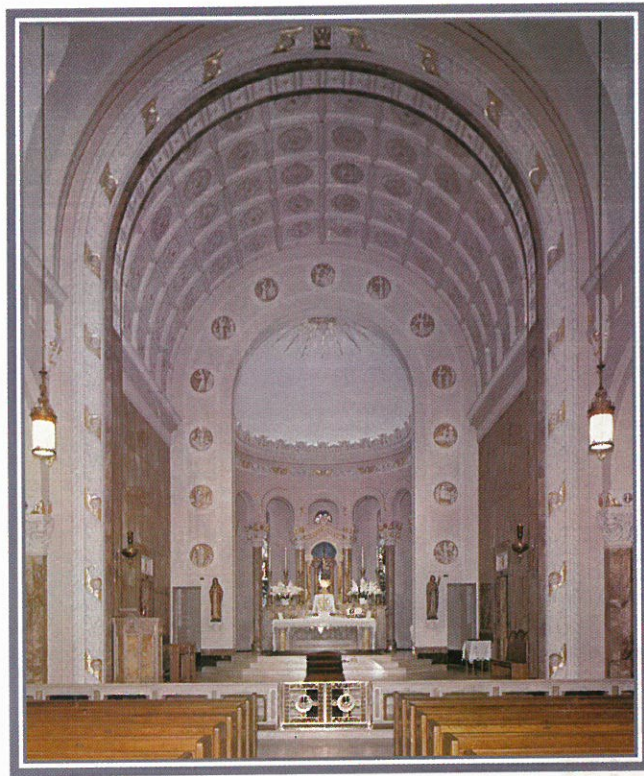

Deacon Tom was one of 40 men selected from a list of 500 applicants for the first permanent diaconate class in the Archdiocese of Boston. After 3 years of study he was ordained at the Holy Cross Cathedral in Boston on May 22, 1976. He has served St. Anthony's Parish continually for 27 years preaching the Gospel, teaching children and adults and assisting with the sacraments.

Missionary Order of St. Charles Borromeo

Known as the Scalabrinians in honor of their founder, Bishop John Baptist Scalabrini, these missionaries serve throughout the world, from Taiwan, China to Australia to the Amazons in Brazil. Their number includes six Bishops and over six hundred Priests and Brothers. Dedicated to all migrant groups and refugee peoples, they serve in ethnic parishes, seaman centers and hospitals. Touched by the plight of his fellow countrymen, who were forced by poverty and insecurity to cross the seas, and settle abroad, he became their ardent and untiring apostle. His life was devoted to the sick, the poor and the oppressed. The church, several Popes and many governments have recognized his charity and Christian endeavors. He died in 1905 at the age of 65. Pope John Paul II beatified Bishop Scalabrini in November 1997. Today his followers celebrate over 100 years of pastoral care for the poor, the migrant and the stranger of foreign lands. Their work and efforts in a very difficult apostolate are a testament to their spiritual lives, the love of Christ and their dedication to the people of God.

Our House of Worship

St. Anthony's Church was designed by John Guarino, an architect from East Boston, and constructed by the Concrete Construction Company of Everett. It is Romanesque in style with modern modifications. It has two sections, the lower hall used for functions, and the church proper.

The outside walls are made of iron spot bricks, with limestone trimmings. The cupola, generally characteristic of Romanesque architecture, and the campanile are distinct external features.

Twelve majestic pillars of occhiopernice marble line the main aisle to the altar. The pillars are a composition of rose tavernelle, porta santa, and botticino marble imported from Italy. The front base of the altar shows the Last Supper sculptured in high relief on a slab of white marble weighing over 2000 pounds. The tabernacle is of light sienna marble with a bronze door. Over the tabernacle is a baldachin like structure, ornamented in chiseled travernelle marble, weighing over 3000 pounds and supported by four shafts of yellow sienna marble. Rising into the blue Venetian mosaic niche of the baldachin like structure is the crucifix, hand carved out of wood. The walls of the sanctuary are of yellow sienna with a border levanto. On the front of the sanctuary arch are highlighted thirteen stages in the life of St. Anthony. The altar rail, also exquisitely executed in marble, is distinguished by its series of gold Venetian mosaic strips, porta santa colonnettes, and botticino top.

The soft purple light falling from blue, red trimmed stained glass windows, each of which is a memorial, further enhances the varicolored marble throughout the church. The seven large windows in the sanctuary are of particular significance. From extreme left to extreme right they depict St. Charles Borromeo, St. Anthony of Padua, the consecration of a priest, the crucifixion, the celebration of Holy Mass, St. Francis of Assisi, and Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini.

On each side wall where the Stations of the Cross, begin and end, there is a panel painting by the Reverend Nazareno Properzi, C.S., a Scalabrinian priest. The famous sculptor Charles Pizzano carved the Stations of the Cross.
